* Tuition fees are subject to change. Students should budget for books and supplies; please contact us for an estimated amount.

Please include the following materials with this form:

Acceptance is based on an evaluation of these materials, and how well they demonstrate your potential for the program.

Portfolio (Does not apply to Acting or Web Development)
 Please send us 12 examples of your best artwork, in any medium. DVD, CD or online portfolios are acceptable.
 Please send them in an Adobe friendly format, ie: jpg, targa, pdf. For more specific info on portfolios, contact the Admission Department.

Audition (Acting and Broadcasting applicants only)

Acting: Applicants will be required to prepare two audition pieces; one contemporary and one Shakespeare. Speeches should not be more than 2- 3 minutes in length. The audition will consist of the presentation of the monologues, an interview (in-person or by telephone) and possibly further work on the speeches or other exercises. DVD or video is an acceptable format for the audition.

Broadcasting: Applicants for Broadcasting for Radio and TV require to successfully complete a vocal audition and a personal interview, either in person or on the phone. In an interview applicants would have to showcase their proficiency in general knowledge, and broadcast industry awareness. The prospective applicant is expected to have high proficiency in oral and written English.

Resume (All applicants)
 Please include current contact information, education and work experience.

Letter of Intent (All applicants)
