ADMISSION REQUIREMENTS

Please include the following materials with this form:

(Acceptance is based on an evaluation of these materials, and how well they demonstrate your potential for the program.)

1 Portfolio

(Required for: 2D/3D Character Animation, Game Art & Design, Professional Photography, and Visual Effects for Film & TV)

○ 12 examples of your best artwork

Your portfolio should represent your current skill level, whatever that may be.

○ Print or digital copies of original artwork are accepted

Digital artwork should be sent in Adobe friendly formats (e.g. jpg, targa, pdf).

○ Guidelines & Tips

Program specific guidelines and portfolio tips available at vanarts.com/admission-requirements.

Audition

(Required for: Acting for Film & TV, and Broadcasting & Online Media)

○ Acting for Film & TV

2 Audition pieces required – Contrasting monologues (must be from a play), 1 contemporary and 1 Shakespeare, or 2 Contemporary (1 dramatic and 1 comedic). Each piece should be no longer than 2 minutes; applicant should know both monologues without use of text (on paper or computer). In person audition is preferred, followed by an interview; we will accept recorded auditions which will be followed by a Skype Interview.

○ Broadcasting & Online Media

Successful completion of a vocal audition and personal interview (either in-person or by phone). Applicants must showcase high proficiency in general broadcasting knowledge, industry awareness, and the English language.

2 Letter of Intent

A one page personal statement describing: your career goals, what sparks your interest for your chosen program of study and why you have chosen VanArts.

3 Resume

Please include current contact information, education, and work experience.

4 Proof of Age

Photocopy of your passport or driver's license with Photo ID.

5 Transcripts

VanArts encourages applicants to submit all recent secondary and post-secondary transcripts. High school transcripts are required for candidates under 19 years of age.

6 English Proficiency

For students who are not fluent in English, proof of English language proficiency must be provided (e.g. test scores, transcripts, partner programs). We may also require a telephone or in-person interview. Accepted methods of proving English proficiency are available at vanarts.com/admission-requirements.
